

Grace H. Wolf

Biography

Grace Han Wolf, a resident of Herndon since 1999, is serving her first term on the Herndon Town Council.

As a councilmember, she serves as advisory director on the Committee for Dulles Board of Directors and as Herndon's representative to the Fairfax County Economic Advisory Commission.

Wolf has served the Herndon community as president and board member of the Council for the Arts of Herndon; as a member of the Herndon Festival Committee; and as a member of the Asian Business Committee of the Dulles Regional Chamber of Commerce. She has also served as a Girl Scout troop leader. In 2006, she was the recipient of the Town of Herndon's prestigious Distinguished Service Award, recognizing her commitment to volunteerism in the town; and she was a member of the Leadership Fairfax Class of 2007.

Currently a small business owner, Wolf has held positions in finance and accounting at IBM Consulting, Deloitte and Touche Management Consulting, Dun & Bradstreet and Bankers Trust. She holds a BA in Economics and an MBA in Finance and Strategy, both from Cornell University.

Wolf lives in Herndon with her husband and daughter.
